Letters from Leah

About the event A Night with Jay Hulme at Community UCC
We are thrilled to bring poet, speaker, and theologian Jay Hulme for a night of poetry at Community UCC! Bring your friends for a fun evening that will begin with a "mocktail hour", featuring scrumptious hors d'oeuvres, a silent auction, and a raffle. Then we will hear from Hulme, who is joining us all the way from the UK to share his work. Here is the schedule for the evening:

6:00 p.m. Happy Hour, silent auction and raffle
7:30 p.m. Poetry event
8:30 p.m. Book signing, and winners announced

Snazzy attire is encouraged! If that isn't your vibe, that's okay. Wear what you feel comfortable in — as we say at CUCC, no matter who you are or where you are on life's journey, you're welcome here and we really mean it.

This event supports the mission and ministry of Community United Church of Christ. We are a Just-Peace, LGBTQ Open & Affirming, Theologically Progressive Congregation of The United Church of Christ, located in the heart of the University of Illinois.

If you are unable to purchase tickets online, we will have limited tickets available at the church office. Contact info@community-ucc.org or (217) 344-5091 with any questions about the event!
About Jay Hulme:

Jay is a poet, speaker, and theologian from Leicester, in the UK. His books for children have been nominated for some of the UK’s oldest and most prestigious writing and illustration awards. His books for adults are published by one of the UK’s leading Christian publishers and are widely reviewed and praised, with his poem ‘Jesus at the Gay Bar’ becoming an international sensation. As one of the UK’s foremost transgender theologians, Jay regularly speaks and preaches at churches, cathedrals, and theological conferences.

When he isn’t writing, speaking, or caring for the 1144 year old church where he serves as Churchwarden, Jay enjoys exploring (and climbing up) the ancient churches and cathedrals that litter the British landscape, finding inspiration in their beauty, and in the faith which has been practiced there for centuries.

Here’s what we have to look forward to in worship in November:

November 5: Our Money Story – Acts 16:11-15 & 1 Timothy 6:9-10
   - On this All Saints Sunday, we explore the stories we have learned about money (for better or worse) from the saints in our lives. As we celebrate those who have gone before us, bring a photo or memento to place on the chancel.

   - On this Ingathering Sunday of the 2023 Stewardship Campaign, you are invited to return your pledge card.

Every Sunday will feature artwork and poetry from A Sanctified Art. Our congregation has enjoyed these offerings so much in the past – I know we will be enriched by what this series has to offer. As we move into this Stewardship season, may we all remember, release, reimagine, and restore our money stories so that we can write the one God is begging us to live into.

Blessings,

Rev. Leah Robberts-Mosser

Volunteers Needed
A Night with Jay Hulme

The Church Life Board has planned A Night with Jay Hulme, award winning transgender performance poet, speaker, and educator for Sat, Dec 2, 2023. The evening begins at 6:00pm with appetizers, mingling, a Silent Auction, and a Raffle with Jay Hulme taking the stage at 7:30pm. To make this event a success, many volunteers are needed. Identified areas of need are: Tickets, Publicity, Auction (possible 50/50 raffle), Set-up/Tear Down, Event Planning, Where Needed. Contact members of your Church Life Board with questions. Signup to indicate your interest to help by scanning the QR Code or going to the Sign-Up Genius at: https://shorturl.at/acfs2 Please note that kitchen helpers will also be needed for this event. Please send an email to info@community-ucc.org if you are interested in helping in the kitchen.
Silent Auction

A Night with Jay Hulme

To have a successful Silent Auction, we need ALL of you! The CLB is inviting the small groups of the church (Individuals Together, Young Adults, Middle Agers, Retirees, Campus Ministry, Pub Theology, Men’s Breakfast, CLB, and any other groups I may have forgotten) to put together a themed basket. If you are involved with more than 1 group, you have an opportunity to help each group plan their basket. If you aren’t in a small group, you are encouraged to come up with a themed basket idea too. Maybe you could partner with another person to help create the basket. We ask that when you choose a theme for your basket that you let either Johnalene or Peg know what that theme is so that we can include it on a list of baskets and hopefully get you a gift card to include in your basket. Possible ideas: Date Night, Family Night, Just for Kids, Pamper Yourself, Christmas Crafts, A Decorated Christmas Tree, Staycation, Chocolate Delight.

Cmon CUCC – let’s all work together, have some fun and make the auction a success! Let’s make the whole fundraiser evening a success for all of us here at CUCC!

Please have all auction items to CUCC by Sunday, November 19, 2023. Everyone donating an item for the auction must complete a donor form, found in the office. All action items are to be delivered to the Conference Room in the basement.

Campus Ministry

Submitted by Amanda Dobson

Campus Ministry has had an eventful October. Starting out with our bi-annual Campus Ministry Retreat to Tower Hill in Sawyer, MI. While we had a small crew it was an incredible time full of inside jokes, devotion, and relaxation. The following weekend, Campus Ministry led the Sunday Service on worry and how they deal with it. We got to hear from many amazing students, some of which were participating from our ICM group: Amanda Dobson, Anna Schafer, Colin Resch, Harrison Price, Sam Tillman, and Stephanie Tillman. Campus Ministry also participated in McKinley's Trunk-or-Treat event, where they dressed up as their favorite superheroes and passed out candy to kids from the community. As the semester starts to come to an end, and students are met with project deadlines and exams, we slow down our event schedule, keeping it mainly to our weekly events, but there are still a couple of opportunities to volunteer, and Pastor Leah has invited us to have dinner and to start decorating for Christmas at her house on November 26th.

Member in Discernment Update

CUCC Member, Izzy Collazo a second year MDiv student at Chicago Theological Seminary and current Member in Discernment of the United Church of Christ is working as a student pastor at Gilead Church Chicago this year. Izzy is excited to share that she preached her first sermon at Gilead on Sunday, October 22, 2023, and thought some of you may want to hear what she had to say, and has sent a link "I couldn't ignore my gut when..." to her sermon. She says Gilead is a self-identified queer storytelling church that meets in a bar on Sunday evening so the preaching style may be different than expected. All of Gilead’s sermons are uploaded to Spotify.
Pub Theology
Join Us for Our New Book

Pub Theology (a Tuesday night book group) is starting a new book on November 7. We are reading Where the Deer and the Antelope Play: The Pastoral Observations of One Ignorant American Who Loves to Walk Outside by U of I alum, Nick Offerman.

We meet in the CUCC Fellowship Hall at 7:00pm on Tuesday evenings. If you think this book sounds interesting and you'd like to talk about it with others, come join us. Buy the book, read the first three chapters and join us on November 7.

For more information or to be added to the Pub mailing list, talk to Tom Ward (ward508@comcast.net).

Student Care Packages

Every year at the end of the semester, a group of us assembles care packages for our campus ministry students. We gather an assortment of stress relievers, snacks, and drinks to help our students know that we are thinking of them and hoping for all good things as their semesters draw to a close. If you would like to help with this project by contributing something, making a financial contribution toward things we might buy, or helping with the actual assembly, please let Jeanne Ward know at jeawa@comcast.net or 217-840-0668.

Cookbooks

We still have a few CUCC "Keep Calm and Cook On" Cookbooks that would make great Christmas gifts. The cookbook was created during the pandemic, and it is a collection of wonderful recipes by members and friends of CUCC. Get yours and one for a friend or relative for only $5.00. Contact the Church Office at (217) 344-5091 or info@community-ucc.org if you are interested in purchasing a cookbook.

From Wikipedia: Modern cookbooks. In 1796, the first known American cookbook titled, American Cookery, written by Amelia Simmons, was published in Hartford, Connecticut. Until then, the cookbooks printed and used in the Thirteen Colonies were British. The first modern cookery writer and compiler of recipes for the home was Eliza Acton.

Carols and Contemplation Retreat
Pastor Leah and Pastor Connie invite you to come find some breathing space in the midst of all the holiday busy-ness by joining them for “Carols and Contemplation” on Saturday, December 9, in the church parlor. Light morning munchies will be available at 8:30 a.m., with the day’s programming beginning at 9. Since our Advent worship series focuses on the songs of Christmas, we will spend the morning with some of our favorite carols. After morning prayer and time to get to know one another a bit better, you may choose from several different quiet activities designed to help you relax and think about the meaning of the season. We will close the morning with a carol sing and special communion service, ending around 11:30.

There is no charge for this mini retreat sponsored by The John Bandy Center for Spirituality and Faith, but a basket for donations to cover the cost of food and supplies will be available for those who would like to help. We need a general head count by December 3rd so we can be sure to have plenty of materials; please email the office or Pastor Connie (connie@community-ucc.org) before then if you plan to come.
As we move toward the busyness of the holiday season, we pause to remember and give thanks. This month, our display features books on the related topics of gratitude, blessings, and prayer. The books displayed are only a small part of our collection, of course—please stop in to browse!

This month’s featured books are:

- Joan Chittister and Rowan Williams, Uncommon Gratitude: Alleluia for All That Is.
- Simple Gifts: The Shaker Song, with photographs by Solomon M. Skolnick.
- Monica Furlong, ed., Women Pray: Voices Through the Ages, from Many Faiths, Culture, and Traditions.
- Beth A. Richardson, Christ Beside Me, Christ Within Me: Celtic Blessings.
- Elaine St. James, Simplify Your Life: 100 Ways to Slow Down and Enjoy the Things That Really Matter.
Jubilee Cafe

Jubilee Café has returned to in person dining, and this requires many additional volunteers to make Jubilee Café run smoothly. If you would be willing to volunteer, anyone older than 14 is welcome to come and help at Jubilee Café. There are still many open slots on many of the Monday nights volunteer list. Please look at the list and consider volunteering. If you are willing to volunteer, go to the sign-up link at https://tinyurl.com/mry8wbum contact Johnell at johnell.bentz@gmail.com, for more information.

10/23/2023 -- Happy 6th birthday Jubilee Cafe CUCC! Can you believe it -- tonight we served our 20,000th meal?!? Amazing. God is so good and so are the hearts of our volunteers. This ministry is only possible because a crew of CUCCers and other dedicated community folk manage the kitchen, shop, cook, and clean. And we can only do it with such extravagant hospitality because we have new and regular volunteers, students and community people alike, who show up and work their tails off making sure our guests have a good meal and even better experience. Grateful. I'm just so grateful for these people.

When the 20,000th meal was served, we turned off the music and made a big hullabaloo. The guest who got to eat that meal was gifted a very special and fancy hat. Jamie has been eating with us since day one and said it was just fine if we took his picture to share with you. All our servers had on party hats tonight. Even Mama the Service Dog had a hat! (Scroll through the pictures. They're a hoot.) We had birthday banners and pennants up to make the place festive. And because we like to celebrate, every guest went home with a $5 gift card to a local restaurant or store.

Tonight, guests dined on either vegetarian chikn, or baked chicken legs or quarters (their cho3uce) smothered in a French herb and garlic sauce (y'all I put 10 quarts of cream in that sauce....it was so freaking delicious), green beans, and egg noodles. Anna Barnes baked and iced birthday cake from scratch. Mmm. So good. We served 72 hot meals and 35 heat at home meals this evening.

Over and over again guests told us how grateful they were, how much this space means to them, how the warm greeting and bright atmosphere makes them feel good. One woman told me tonight, through tears, that my joy mattered to her. "Well, I said," quoting something I heard last week at the Convergence Music Project event, "Joy is resistance. It's a survival technique." Whatever you do in the coming days to make the world a more just and kind place, do it with joy. The world needs it.

If you'd like to help us celebrate our birthday, we are still receiving donations of coats, hats, and gloves. We especially need L, XL, XXL, and so on. Thanks, everyone.

Mission Ministry

UCC offering update
Way to be the church, Community! Because of your generosity, we collected $307.92 for United Church of Christ’s annual “Neighbors In Need” offering. One-third of the offering supports Council for American Indian Ministry (CAIM). Two-thirds are used by Justice and Witness Ministries to provide grants to UCC churches and organizations as well as supporting a variety of justice initiatives, advocacy efforts, and direct service projects.

Upcoming Advent Project

We’re currently making plans to offer the Alternative Advent Market again this year. As a reminder, this is how it works: we will be "selling" items needed by several of our local mission partners. Items will be available at a variety of price points from $5 to $50, so you can choose something to fit your budget. You will be able to make donations for items in honor of family or friends on your Christmas list, filling out a form to show your choice of item and the person who the gift is honoring. Later, you will receive a personalized ornament to attach to a present, stick in a stocking, or pop in an envelope, telling your friend or family member about the gift given in their honor.

Keep an eye out for upcoming specific details. We hope to offer the market November through early December.

Crop Walk

The CUCC Crop Walk team raised $1,295 to fight food hunger this year. Twenty-five percent of that $1,295 or $373.75 remains in the local Champaign-Urbana area to support food hunger efforts right here. Our six walkers were Joel Brotherton, Dennis Cockrum, Jan Hiland, Stephen Kolderup, David Willcox, and Jeanne Ward.
Men’s Breakfast
The Men of CUCC meet the first Thursday of each month for breakfast. Join us at 7:00am on November 2 for breakfast. We would love to see you at Urbana Family Garden Restaurant. Anyone who identifies as a man is welcome.

Contact Emma Winniki-Smith at inklizii1@gmail.com if you have any questions.
Liturgy is defined as the work of the people, the community gathered for worship. This is one of the reasons Liturgists, Greeters, Ushers, the Choir, and others participate in the leadership of worship. Worship is not just the pastor’s role. Many voices add richness to the worship experience for all.

To simplify volunteering for opportunities to serve in worship at CUCC, the Sign-up Genius for Liturgists, Ushers, and Greeters has been updated into one sign up sheet. Sign up where all three worship assistant tasks are listed for each worship service through December.

The paper sign-up sheets have also been consolidated into a single sign-up sheet requiring a simple check mark in the appropriate task box to indicate which task you are volunteering for (liturgist, usher, greeter) for that day.

We hope this will make it easier to volunteer to serve in worship at CUCC.

Liturgist: The liturgist leads portions of the worship service including reading the scripture lesson. All information is sent ahead of time so there is time to practice before the worship service.

Usher: The usher welcomes folks into the sanctuary and hands them a bulletin for the service. They also pass the offering plate at offering time, count and record the physical number of people attending the worship service. Directions are provided in a weekly email.

Greeters: Welcome folks to Community United Church of Christ, especially visitors, and help them find their way around the building to the restrooms, the fellowship hour, and the sanctuary. Greeters make all people coming to CUCC feel welcomed. Reminders of service are provided in a weekly email.

To sign-up online, scan the QR Code or go to https://tinyurl.com/cucchgul

A paper copy of the sign-up sheet can also be found in the Parlor.
