Letters From Leah

Dear Community,
Throughout this stewardship season, we've been opening our hearts to new ways of understanding how we might bring our treasures before God. The mission and ministry of this church aren't just things we do--they're the heartbeat of why we belong, volunteer, and give. I hope the invitations shared by our ministry teams and the reflections on generosity given by Stewardship co-chairs Marla Elmore and Brittany Mahannah have sparked something in you. I know they've sparked something in me. If you have missed any of the ministry team shorts, or Marla and Brittany's sermons, they are on website for you to view at www.community-ucc.org. The stewardship sermons are worth watching if you missed worship on those days.

These reflections, and the invitation to be aspirational in our giving have sparked something in the Church Life Board, so much so, that your Church Life Board, Stewardship Co-chairs, and I all turned our pledges in early ahead of the distribution of stewardship packets. We believe in the mission and ministry of this church so much we felt called to lead the way this year.

When you receive your Stewardship packet, you are invited to prayerfully consider your commitment to our community of faith and return your pledge card on Sunday, November 15, or make your commitment online at https://champaignucc.breezems.com/form/2027/PledgeForm. Pledge cards will also be available during worship and we will have a designated time to bring our cards forward to be blessed and consecrated. These cards reflect our best intentions. Please remember that if circumstances change, they can be adjusted. The entire congregation is invited to celebrate the bounty we have gathered and received together by gathering in homes that evening for our annual Fireside Dinners. Sign up to participate today!

As this Stewardship season comes to a close, the invitation is clear: how will we respond to God's call and use our resources to make a difference in the lives of others?
Thanks for being the church.

Blessings,

Rev. Leah Roberts-Mosier

✦ WORSHIP NEWS ✦

Looking ahead to Advent, Until the Dawn...

It's hard to believe, but Advent is upon us. The start of the liturgical year and season of anticipation preceding Christmas begins on the Sunday following Thanksgiving. The good people at A Sanctified Art remind us:

Every Advent, we light candles and speak of hope. We wait for the good news that God is born. We prepare with pageants and presents. Yet, in the midst of our busy waiting, we know all too well that the world is not as it should be. Wars rage on, violence persists, new tragedies unfold. God's promises are real, and God's promised day has not yet come. This tension keeps us yearning—for a new day, a new way, a world made new.

This new worship series focuses on the actions we can take as we move through the night with hope for tomorrow. Night is a time when the way forward may seem unclear, when our senses are heightened and fear may creep in. And the darkness also brings gifts—rest, regeneration, dreams, intimacy with God. In our sacred stories, angels often arrive in the night, calling for courageous action and singing good news. In the night, Mary's labor pains crescendo and Christ is born. In the night, shepherds and Magi follow the stars to get closer to God. And so, in the metaphorical night, we will carry on with the work that is ours to do.

Just as surely as the sun rises, God's steadfast love and mercy are made new every morning. As we move toward the horizon, we will cry out, start somewhere, speak up, take courage, build up, and choose joy. These actions will help us resist despair and put our prayers in motion. Until the day when God's love reigns and all the earth echoes shalom, let us keep moving, singing, resisting, and rejoicing—trusting that God joins us in the work of Advent.

Worship Assistants

Liturgy is defined as the work of the people; the community gathered for worship. This is one of the reasons Liturgists, Greeters, Ushers, the Choir, and others participate in the leadership of worship. Worship is not just the pastor's role. Many voices add richness to the worship experience for all.

To sign up to be a liturgist, greeter, or usher for November 2026, please sign up on the paper sign-up sheet in the Parlor. Just write your name on the date that works for you and check the task you wish to fill.

You will recieve an email reminding you that you are scheduled for the Sunday you signed up for that includes intructions for arrival time and job duties.

CAMPUS AND YOUTH MINISTRY

YOUTH MINISTRY UPDATES

Youth Group met twice in October, first on October 4th, and then again on October 18th. On the 18th, the youth were joined by campus ministry students and congregants on a trip to the Great Pumpkin Patch in Arthur. Nearly 20 adults, youth, and children participated in this intergenerational event, and the group had a wonderful time navigating the corn maze, taking a wagon ride, and enjoying fall treats and scenery. In between meetings, the youth keep in touch and share what is happening in their lives in the Youth Group chat, which also includes the chaperones from the summer mission trip. It has been a great way to continue building community and strengthening relationships outside of our bi-monthly meetings. Planning is currently underway for another mission trip next summer. Dates and location will be confirmed soon!

GREETINGS FROM YOUR MISSION TEAM!

We want to share a couple of updates and news of things to come! First, we want you to know that the 100 school kits you lovingly donated to, sewed bags for, and assembled were safely delivered to the Church World Service "depot" located in Elgin, IL during October. The From there they will be shipped to wherever they are needed most! Thanks so much for your help with this annual project. If you are cleaning out cabinets or closets this fall or winter and find stashes of child friendly fabric that would work for school bags for next year, bring to church or let us know!

Secondly, we want to thank you for $585 in donations to the Neighbors in Need offering at the beginning of October. This is one of the annual offerings we take for the greater UCC, and goes to support the Council of Native American Ministries (1/3) and grants supporting UCC direct service projects supporting justice and compassion. Thank you SO MUCH for your generosity!

Third, thanks to all who supported CUCC in the CU CROP Walk for the hungry. We raised $831.40. In 2027, CUCC will again host the walk. We are one of two local churches who have participated every year since it began in 1992. Let's have a huge turnout of walkers next year.

Coming up next:

At a date yet to be determined, we'll be having a day when you can come volunteer a few hours at Salt and Light
As in recent years, we will again be sponsoring the CUCC Alternative Christmas Market this year. For those of you who haven't been here at Christmas time before, this is a time when we work with several local agencies that serve populations within our own local community. We ask them about items that they need and then we work to fill some of those needs. Starting on November 22nd, order forms will be available in the church parlor for Items at a variety of price points from $5 to $50, so that you can choose something to fit your budget. You will be able to make donations for items in honor of family or friends on your Christmas list, filling out a form to show your choice of item and the person whom the gift is honoring. Your Mission Team will do the actual shopping so that you don't have to. Later in December, you will receive a personalized ornament/gift tag to attach to a present, stick in a stocking, or pop in an envelope, telling your friend or family member about the gift given in their honor. Better yet, we will be able to provide these needed items to the organizations we are partnering with! We hope you will find this a fun and helpful way to share abundance with those who need it in our community, as well as sharing that feeling of generosity with those you love! We'll have information about agencies we'll be supporting and gift options coming up soon!

We are always so grateful for your prayers and support!

Jeanne and Patty

PUB THEOLOGY

Pub Theology, one of the CUCC book groups, meets on Tuesday evenings at 7:00pm in the Fellowship Hall. We are about to start a new book, so if you are interested in joining us, now would be a great time.

On Tuesday, November 17, we will begin discussing our newest selection, Jesus and John Wayne: How White Evangelicals Corrupted a Faith and Fractured a Nation by Kristin Kobes Du Mez.

Chrissy Stroop of the Boston Globe writes, "It is impossible to do justice to the richness of Jesus and John Wayne in a short review, but one of the key points the book stresses is that as Christian nationalists, the vast majority of white evangelicals believe that our country's flourishing depends on aggressive make leadership. The pervasive abuse patterns of white evangelical subculture replicates themselves on a large social scale in the Christian Right's politics. Since understanding this will be crucial if Americans are to have a functional democratic future, Jesus and John Wayne is a book that America needs now. I hope it will be widely read."

Kristin Kobes Du Mez is a professor of history at Calvin University and the author of A New Gospel for Women and other writings that have appeared in the Washington Post, Christianity Today and many other publications.

Join us Tuesday, November 17 at 7:00pm if you're interested in discussing this book.

If you're not on the mailing list, but would like to be added, email Tom Ward at wardt508@comcast.net and he'll add you to the list.

BROWN BAG BIBLE STUDY

Beginning with the first Sunday in Advent, many of the passages you will encounter in our worship services will be drawn from the Gospel of Mark. Please join Pastor Connie downstairs following the service on November 15 for an overview of this gospel-- its context, its structure, what makes it distinctive, and some of the stories you will likely hear in the coming months. If you have specific questions, please let Pastor Connie know and she will do her best to address them! The easiest way to reach her is probably via email at connie@community-ucc.org. We will end by 1:00, but you are welcome to bring a brown bag lunch if you like.

If there's a passage or story you have always wanted to know more about, please let Pastor Connie know so she can try to include it on the schedule. Her email is connie@community-ucc.org; her cell, 217-202-9624.

CUCC'S MONTHLY SOCIAL GATHERINGS

Fireside Dinners

The date for the Fireside Dinners this year will be Sunday, November 15th. The dinners provide a venue for getting to know members of the congregation in an informal setting. Please consider participating, the dinners are a lot of fun.

The Fireside Dinners follow a few simple rules. the dinners all take place on the same night, in this case November 15th from 6:00 - 8:00pm. A certain number of congregation members offer to host a dinner in their home and to prepare a dinner entree (this could be something simple like a soup or salad meal). Once the number of interested participants has been determined, we assign 5-8 participants to each host. the host then contacts the participants to let them know the location of the dinner and asks the participants to bring something to contribute to the dinner (appetizer, bread, salad, vegetable, dessert). One last rule, no church business is to be discussed as the purpose of the dinners is to have time to learn more about individuals in our congregation and to have fun.

The dinners are open to all church members, visitors, college students, and youth group members. Everyone is encouraged to participate!

If you would like to participate, please fill out the attached form and return it to the church office no later than Wednesday, November 4th. You can also email or text the required information listed to Peg Wade at peg.wade@comcast.net 217-369-0474. There will also be forms available at the sign-up table in the parlor during October.

Thanks to CUCC for a wonderful Pastor Appreciation celebration. We are blessed to be your pastors.

CREATIVITY GROUP

Did you know that CUCC has a group that meets regularly to explore the topic of creativity and to encourage one another in creative practice? We meet on the first and third Wednesdays of the month at 10 a.m., usually at the Champaign Public Library. Some of us are writers while others paint, use photography, or express themselves in other ways. We would love to have others join us!

As fall begins, we are going to begin reading Art is How God Loves Us: The Sacred Beauty of Created Things by Meridith Hite Estevez. If you are interested, please contact Pastor Connie (connie@community-ucc.org; 217-202-9624) for more information.

PROMOTING HEALTHY COMMUNICATION IN OUR CONGREGATION

Did you know that CUCC has two committees that facilitate communication between the congregation and pastors? This is your quarterly reminder that the Pastoral Relations committee provides support for CUCC's pastor, advocates for the pastor's leadership, and provides for a regular channel of communication between the pastor and the congregation. The committee meets with Pastor Leah monthly to offer guidance and support her ministry and professional goals. Current members of this committee are Kristy Brownfield, Joel Brotheron, incoming moderator Bill Gropp, and committee chair Cara Finnegan.

Similarly, the Joint Personnel Committee facilitates support and accountability for the ministry of Izzy Colazzo in her position as Director of Campus and Youth Ministries. Members of the committee represent the Church Life Board and the Campus Ministry Board, and they meet quarterly with Pastor Izzy to review her work and to encourage her upcoming projects. Current committee members are past moderator Susan Pawlicki, Ilsa Kantola, and committee chair Stephen Kolderup.

In our congregation, we emphasize the importance of direct communication between the people of CUCC and the pastors. However, in the event that communication has gotten off track, there may be times when one of these committees can be invited to step in and help the parties get back on track together. In these cases, CUCC'ers are invited to contact anyone on the relevant committee.

Jubilee Café

Jubilee Café requires many volunteers to make everything run smoothly. If you would be willing to volunteer, anyone older than 14 is welcome to come and help at Jubilee Café. There are still many open slots on many of the Monday nights volunteer list. Please look at the list and consider volunteering. If you are willing to volunteer, go to the sign-up link at tinyurl.com/mw5zeeky. Contact the office, info@community-ucc.org, for more information.

October 12 Jubilee Report

Happy 9th birthday, Jubilee Café! As our guests were walking in tonight, upon seeing my birthday hat, a guest said to me, "Time sure flies when you are blessing people," and he's right. Most every Monday for the past nine years, we've been here serving delicious, nutritious food to people and creating vital third space for folks. We're so grateful to do this work.

Take a look at the pictures and you'll see many smiling faces, all are volunteers who make this happen. We're so grateful for them!

Our birthday feast included housemade coleslaw, cheddar biscuits, and macaroni salad, plus baked beans and fried chicken or vegetarian 'chikin'. Each person got their own birthday cupcake with a candle which meant everybody got to make their own birthday wish!

We served 79 meat, 2 veggie, 6 heat at home meals. That brings our total meals served to date 31,463, as of October 12. Truly, we are blessed to be a blessing.

Remember that you can help us celebrate our birthday by sending us sleeping bags for our guests.
